Weekly Discipleship Study

Rosalinda is a new believer and the only Christian in her family. She was led to the Lord by my good friend Alice, who was moving to Dallas, and asked me to continue to disciple Rosalinda. Each week I meet with her for a Bible study. She is encouraged by this time of fellowship and is reminded to be a light for her family and co-workers. Pray for Rosalinda's spiritual growth as we continue to study together and for her witness to her unsaved family. The photo below when Alice recently visited here.

Weekly Ministry to Veterans

On Wednesday mornings I go to a local hospital to visit the Veterans who are patients there. I usually visit with 12 to 14 each week, giving them gospel tracts and Our Daily Bread devotionals. It's interesting to hear about where they served in the military and special to be able to thank them for their service. I'm encouraged by the ones who are believers, and I find most of them open to words of witness. Pray for wisdom and boldness to share the gospel with these veterans.

Local Church Ministry

In the Hispanic church I attend, any reason is a good reason for a fellowship meal after church---Valentine's Day, Easter, Children's Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day—we love to celebrate! Pastor Samuel brings us good messages on Sunday mornings and this is him on Mother's Day. He and his two teenage children play guitars for the singing of choruses. We are thankful that God led a new couple to the church last year and they had Bible training in Mexico and help with Sunday school teaching. Pray for spiritual growth in the church.

Online Ministry

There are many interesting contacts from my ministry on the Internet. Joel from Managua, Nicaragua wrote: "I just accepted Christ for the first time. I want my life to change and separate myself from sin." Another time he asked, "Why do bad people see good things happen to them?" Ana from Medellín Colombia wrote: "I am sad, have no friends and estranged from family. The only thing I have are my cigarettes and they're killing me. Lord Jesus come into my heart and fill this emptiness." I've written to Ana three more times but she has not responded. Magaly from Valparaiso, Chile told of her severe depression, blaming herself for the suicide death of her husband. I answered her immediately and she wrote: "I was so impressed at your quick reply---like a miracle for me---and to think that someone from far away would write and encourage me." A month later: "Thank you, Beverly, for thinking of me. Your letters encourage me and I'm much better and happier." Lilly and I have been corresponding for over two years. She is from San José, Costa Rica and I've been able to give her lots of counsel over many difficult situations. She is the only Christian in her family, but she is firm in her faith and growing in Christ. Paulina from Colombia wrote of her struggle with depression and that seems to be a common theme with many. Also many ask for prayer to find a job. I try to encourage them with my reply. Thank you for your prayers for these and many others, and pray for wisdom for me in answering the many e-mails.
