

Their Constant Pleasure Ground

Psalm 1:1-3

Dr. Henry Law

"Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers."

Blessed are those who find their constant pleasure-ground in the luxuries of the Bible!

- ✓ They commune with the mind of God.
- ✓ They listen to a heavenly voice.
- ✓ They bask in rays of purest light.
- ✓ They feed in wholesome pastures of refreshment.
- ✓ They fear no poison from the weeds of error.
- ✓ No devious path can lead their steps astray.
- ✓ Wisdom from above guides sweetly them.

The Spirit, as great Teacher of the Church, instructs the students.

- They advance safely, happily, from grace to grace.
- The lessons are as vast as the mine from which they spring.
- They are as pure as the realms to which they call.
- They warn of sin--its filth--its misery--its end.
- They unfold Jesus in all the glories of redeeming love.
- They exhibit holiness, as the only road to holy Heaven.

Reader! heed a beneficial admonition:

- Study the Bible, as holding treasure for your soul.
- Study in the earnestness of prayer.
- Study with eternity outspread before you.

- Study with the lowliness of a poor sinner before a speaking God.
- Study with faith devoutly grasping every word.

Do not close not the volume without inquiring,

- "Is sin more hateful--is the world more worthless--is the flesh more treacherous in my sight?
- Is Jesus brought nearer to my adoring soul?
- Is my heart won to more entire devotedness?
- Am I more resolute to live for Him, who died for me?"
